

Call for Artists

Exhibit and Fundraiser for Tangent Lab art gallery
143 = I Love You

143 I LOVE YOU

Opening Reception: Friday, February 12, 2010

Artwork due: Saturday, February 6, 2010

Please Note: Yes, time is short to submit works into this show, but we are now opening up the call for artists to try and get 143 artworks. We currently have over 40 artists participating, and what they have come up with so far is pretty exciting.

The Show

The name of the exhibit is 143 = I Love You. The idea is to have several artists make small works to contribute to the show that we'll have right before Valentine's Day on Friday, February 12, 2010. We are trying to accumulate 143 artworks for the show to raise funds for the gallery. Each work will sell for $20, and there will be a special early reception for contributing artists so they can have first choice of the works before the public opening later in the evening. It will be a great way to get a piece of artwork for someone you love and support Tangent Lab.

The gallery is providing 6"x9" masonite board blanks for the artists. You can pick them up at the gallery or they can be delivered. The finished artwork is due back at the gallery by Saturday, February 6. No need to frame the work, and we will affix hanging hardware to the back of the boards when they are turned in. Please email brad@tangentlab.com to arrange a pickup or delivery of blanks.

Concept

Everyone is being asked to include "143" in some way either literally or conceptually in the artwork. By the way, 143 is the txt short hand for I Love You, using the number of letters in each word of the phrase. It also happens to be the address of the gallery! ...143 North Rock Island. You can use any medium including paint, collage, drawings, photos or what ever you want. This is should be a lot of fun for everyone who wants to join in.

Thanks,
